- Senior Probation Corrections Officer

- Parks & Recreation Supervisor
- High School Basketball & Cross Country Coach

If I had to describe these sessions and Coach to a friend I would have to begin with the fact that he is very in tune with our youth. He knows what he is talking about. He isn't the type of person who just speaks from knowledge gained from a book or class. He is real. Life experiences. He pays attention to people and genuinely gets them. He gives kids, teens, and even adults insight and inspiration that I can honestly say is rare.

Very few have moved myself as well as my own children. My son attends these workshops and always comes home with so much knowledge and joy. He loves Coach. My hope is that more people would get to experience with him and I also hope that more of his programs are implemented in the schools and even with sports teams. He is definitely the type of role models our kids need in our community, today especially.

My son attended Coach BE'S sessions last year and this year. The sessions have resulted in a measured improvement with confidence, teamwork, social skills and time management. My son looks forward to attending, and has attended. every session. Coach BE gives the students opportunities to learn how to take ownership, accountability and responsibility in a way where students can relate, while in a safe environment. This allows for the students to understand the lessons in a way which can be applied, allowing for a more positive impact, and it shows. For 2 years in a row, these sessions have given my son lessons he can apply towards his future. Hook forward to signing my child up next year!
